Contract Advertising

THE NUMISMATIC ADVERTISER seeks contract advertising to commence with our fourth issue or any subsequent issue. We offer contracts for 13 insertions at a discount of 15 per cent from our regular rates, and contracts for 26 insertions at a discount of 20 per cent from our regular rates which appear elsewhere on this page. Contracts for 13 insertions may be for consecutive issues, every 2nd issue, or every 4th issue. Contracts for 26 insertions may be for consecutive issues or for every 2nd issue. On contract advertising specific positions in our paper—other than our front page—may be bought. This will be on a first come, first served basis with the provision that where requests for the same position are received in the same mail from two advertisers, preference will be given to an advertiser who bought space in our first three issues. Any size space may be contracted for.

COIN CLUBS

We will still endeavor to send free sample copies of the Numismatic Advertiser to all your members if you will send us your membership list.

A FEW COMMENTS

"I believe a weekly paper is the thing we numismatics need the most."

F. R. Ripley,
3030 Rust Avenue,
Texas City, Texas

"I was hoping a paper would come out weekly."

Terry Rock,
35 Matilda Drive,
Bristol, Connecticut

"Congratulations on your paper. It is a very attractive publication. We think it will be a big success."

Herron-Hill Stamps & Coins,
54 S. Main Street,
Memphis, Tenn.

"A weekly coin paper is just what is needed in the Numismatic field."

Marie E. Dyer, President,
Silver City Coin Club,
Silver City, New Mexico

"I, too, believe we need a weekly paper such as you."

Joseph J. O'Neill,
3322 Highland Avenue,
San Diego 5, California

"A weekly sounds like a very good idea."

James N. Hanson,
Durham Road, RFD 2,
Freeport, Maine

"I believe the weekly issue is a 'must'."

Walter M. Petersen,
Route 2, 104 Sell Road,
Bensenville, Illinois

"I have felt for a long time that a weekly publication for dealers and collectors would be advantageous."

Bill Wilkerson,
21174 Grove Avenue,
Richmond 20, Virginia

"Wishing you success and best wishes on your new medium to fill a long sought for need for a weekly numismatic publication."

Andrew J. Rusbasan,
Sec'y-Treasurer,
Litchfield County Coin Club,
Torrington, Connecticut

NEW PUBLICATIONS

Released April 15th — A Guide Book of Canadian Coins, Currency & Tokens. Published by Canadian Numismatic Publishing Institute, Winnipeg, Canada. This is a comprehensive book for the collector of Canadian money, giving mintage, description, and valuation.

Report To The "Boss" — You!

As we go to press for the second week, we are just beginning to receive reports from our first issue distributed three days ago. Like an actor awaiting the reviews after opening night, we've been "sweating out" your verdict on our little paper. For it is you, the individual collector who is the ultimate "consumer" in the coin business, and it is you who really "runs" the coin business. Not the big dealers, not the coin clubs, and not the coin papers and magazines — but you, the individual collector. Let you decide you want 09a vdb cents and the price goes up; decide you don't want them and the price goes down. It's just that simple.

By the same system of acceptance or rejection, you decide which coin dealers are successful, and you decide whether a coin publication will grow or fail. If you subscribe to our paper, buy the merchandise advertised therein, and let the dealer know you saw the ad in our paper, we will grow and prosper. If you do not, we will fail. We, therefore, make no pretense to benevolence but assert as simple business logic that this is YOUR paper and we want to run it in the way you want it.

We had not intended to run classified ads, but enough of you wrote in about them, that we realized you wanted them and we are running them beginning with this issue. Anything else you want in this paper you can have if we can find a way to do it.

Our idea for this paper is a small weekly to get coin advertising from the dealer to the collector as FAST and ECONOMICAL as possible. By eliminating any frills or extras we hope to keep the cost of advertising and subscriptions so low that anyone can afford them. We don't expect to ever raise prices on either advertising or subscriptions. On the contrary if we get the volume we want, we hope to be able to reduce them.

But, as we said, this is YOUR paper. If you want anything changed about the way we operate, let us know it. Of course we can't make every change that any one collector wants, but if enough of you write us to indicate that a clear majority wants some change in our paper, we will make every effort to change it.

Our rates on advertising and subscriptions are based on an anticipated heavy volume. We must have volume to survive. We need your help. Please tell your numismatic friends about us. WATCH US GROW! HELP US GROW!

Thanks,
EDWIN E. McBRAYER, Publisher

P.S. This issue is small because as a WEEKLY publication the advertising for the second issue had to be sold before the first issue was even distributed. Look for a bigger paper next week.

Classified Advertising

Minimum charge for one insertion is $1.00 for which 25 words are allowed. Additional words 4¢ each.

THE SAME COPY can be run for 13 consecutive weeks for $9.00 (plus 39¢ per word for all words over 25).

THE SAME COPY can be run for 26 consecutive weeks for $15.00 (plus 65¢ per word for all words over 25). Ads run at the above rates for 13 or 26 weeks cannot be changed.

There is not enough profit in a classified ad to cover cost of book-keeping, mailing statements, etc. so we must ask that payment accompany advertising copy on all classified ads without exception.

HEAVY MONEY

These are among the largest coins struck for general circulation each weighs approx. two ounces.

RUSSIA: Catherine the Great 1762-1796 five Kopecks, crudely struck copper, nice legible date and mint mark of my selection. Interesting design on edge. $2.85 ea

CHINA: Hsien Feng, 1851-1862 large brass, some with desirable green patina. My selection of 50 or 100 cash piece both approx. same size, $3.75 each.

Enhance your collection with these historical oddities. All are above average circulated condition.
